Group Term to Age 100 Life Insurance

Financial protection for those you love most

Think About This

44% of people would feel a financial impact within six months of losing their household's primary wage earner. 28% said they would be affected within just one month[†]

More than 40% of Americans with life insurance coverage wish they had purchased their policies at a younger age[‡]

Over half of U.S. households rely on dual incomes (54%), and, for many, losing one income could be devastating to household finances^{††}

Dealing with an unexpected death is difficult enough – you don't want to leave behind overwhelming financial obligations as well. With Group Term Life Insurance coverage, your family can still realize all the goals and dreams you shared together.

Here's How It Works

- Select the coverage that's right for you and your family
- Then if you pass away, your beneficiary files a claim
- A lump-sum cash benefit payable by direct deposit or check can be used however they wish*

Protecting Your Finances

With planning, the death benefit can pass to your beneficiaries free from state or federal estate taxes. Consult with your tax advisor for specifics

Protecting insureds for over 60 years

Meeting Your Needs

- Guaranteed minimum death benefit is level for 5 years¹
- Premiums are affordable and remain level to age 100 unless you make changes to your coverage
- Spouse may be covered^{*2}

[†]2020 Insurance Barometer Study, LIMRA. ^{††}U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, Consumer Expenditure Survey, ibid. *Please refer to the Exclusions and Limitations section of this brochure. ¹Current non-guaranteed death benefit is projected to remain level to age 100. ²Coverage for spouse may be limited to a percentage of the employee's face amount in some states.

Claim Example

Choose

She signs up for Group Term to Age 100 Life Insurance during her employer's Open Enrollment..

Use

Several months later, she suffers a heart attack and passes away. Her husband and children are devastated. Here's her story:

Traveling

She traveled out of town on a business trip to meet with a client

Collapsed

She was in a meeting, experienced a sharp pain and shortness of breath, and collapsed

Ambulance

An ambulance was taking her to the nearest hospital when her heart stopped

Doctors

Doctors and nurses worked tirelessly to revive her, but they could not save her

Notification

Her husband was notified of her passing

Claim

Her husband files a claim on his Term to Age 100 Life Insurance coverage along with the documentation needed to process the lump-sum death benefit claim (see How to File a Claim on page 4).

- Her husband's claim is received, processed, reviewed, and approved for payment by Allstate Benefits.
- The lump-sum death benefit is direct deposited into her husband's bank account. He accesses the funds to help pay for his wife's final burial expenses and any outstanding hospital medical bills.

Here are some of the ways the cash benefit can be used

Finances

Can help eliminate the need to deplete savings or retirement plans

Home

Can help pay the mortgage, continue rental payments, or perform needed home repairs

Expenses

Can help pay for your family's living expenses such as bills, electricity and gas

The examples above detail fictional thought processes and needs; your individual needs and reasons for coverage may vary.

Why Group Term to Age 100 Life Insurance might be right for you

Have you ever experienced a life-changing event and wondered if you would not have the finances in place to handle it if you lost your spouse? It may have crossed your mind, but you put it off because you did not want to think about the unthinkable. However, if you have a spouse, children, or even grandchildren, that is reason enough to think about planning for their future today. Here are some additional reasons to consider:

- You can't predict when you'll die, whether from a disease, accidental injury or natural causes. Upon your death, our coverage can provide a lump-sum cash benefit directly to your designated beneficiary
- You live on a budget, and purchasing traditional permanent life insurance would be costly. Our coverage is affordably priced
- You want a Term Life policy that offers coverage for more than 5, 10 or 20 years. This coverage can be with you until age 100
- You want affordable coverage that goes with you should you leave your employer. You can take the coverage with you; see your Certificate of Insurance for details
- Your family may need additional money to help with health care related bills after you die. Our coverage provides a lump-sum death benefit that can be used to help cover these expenses
- You're the primary wage earner. If you die before age 100, our coverage offers your designated beneficiary a lump-sum death benefit that is guaranteed for the first five years of coverage and is priced to remain level under current experience factors
- You have recurring monthly debts such as a mortgage, car payment or credit cards. Our coverage provides a lump-sum death benefit that can be used to help cover monthly expenses
- You have children under 18, and they require money for daily living expenses such as food, clothing, school sports and college education. Our coverage provides a lump-sum death benefit that can be used to help with daily living expenses

Benefits

Group Term to Age 100 Life Insurance Provides:

Term Life Insurance Death Benefit - a lump-sum death benefit is payable to your designated beneficiary when you die before the certificate anniversary on or after you reach age 100

Optional/Additional Rider Benefits

Accelerated Death Benefit for Terminal Illness - a lump-sum advance of 75% of the death benefit amount (not to exceed $100,000) when diagnosed terminally ill by a physician. The benefit payable is discounted using the current discount rate. Premiums are waived after the payment of the benefit

The rider has exclusions and limitations, may vary in availability by issue or termination age, and may not be available to all covered dependents or in all states. Additional premiums may be required for the rider added to the coverage.
